Acrowire Responds to Growing Demand of Legal Engagements with Two Service Delivery New Hires

Charlotte, N.C. (Dec. 09, 2014) – Acrowire, a strategic business and legal technology consulting company, announced that it continues to expand its staff with the addition of Kevin J. Stricklin as Applications Practice Director and Brian McGary as Service Delivery Manager. Both positions will be supporting service delivery initiatives to further advance the quality of deliverables and challenge the status quo for 2015.

Stricklin joins Acrowire as its Applications Practice Director with more than 20 years of managerial and application development experience. Stricklin's talent will be served overseeing all software development activities, including .NET and SharePoint Application Development. Most recent experience comes from Microsoft where he spent nine years as an Application Development Manager and prior companies including LRW Digital, Inc. and Infinite Technologies / Captaris.

McGary brings over 10 years of managerial and project management experience to Acrowire where he will be responsible for overseeing excellent service delivery to clients as well as all internal projects. McGary's beginning-to-end involvement of each initiative will guarantee success for the life of the project. Prior experience comes from companies including Polypore and Muzak. He holds certifications including Project Management Professional (PMP), Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer, CompTIA Network + Certified and CompTIA A + Certified.

"In 2014 alone, Acrowire's growth has allowed us to hire several new permanent resources further strengthening our leadership and technical teams and driving more stability and success for our clients. Our most important asset is our people and I am proud to have such talented and hardworking individuals on my team," said Ted Theodoropoulos, president of the company. "I am pleased to welcome both Kevin and Brian and am eager to see all of the success we can create together."

These two new hires complement a year of fast growth for Acrowire, including:
