Smith Debnam Selects Acrowire for Systems Consultation and Integration

Charlotte, N.C. (April 24, 2014) – Acrowire, a consulting firm specializing in strategic business and legal technology, has been hired by Smith Debnam to develop a data integration and reporting strategy. The law firm's goal for the engagement is to architect a plan for integrating data from multiple systems into a comprehensive reporting, data analysis and business intelligence platform.

Established in 1972 and headquartered in Raleigh, Smith Debnam is considered one of the largest law firms in North Carolina and offers a wide range of legal expertise for business and personal concerns.

“As our law firm continues to grow, we are focused on ensuring an above-optimal level of IT operations and integrations,” said Jerry T. Myers, Smith Debnam Managing Partner. “After vetting several potential partners, we selected Acrowire based on its proven knowledge, established innovation and experience with legal operations.”

“We have a strict commitment to aligning systems and services with overall goals that impact business performance,” said Ted Theodoropoulos, president of Acrowire. “We are excited to work with Smith Debnam as the firm leverages the power of its systems and data to promote high-level success.”
